Re: Request for information pertaining to a specified incident

Dear Ms. Croce:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 959926.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information must be withheld from the requestor. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you must withhold the submitted information pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.¹

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

c: Requestor
(w/o enclosures)

¹ As our ruling is dispositive, we do not address the sheriff's office's other arguments to withhold this information. Additionally, although the requestor is a representative of the Fort Hood Family Advocacy Program, the requestor does not indicate she has a right of access to the submitted information under state or federal law. See Open Records Decision Nos. 598 (1991), 583 (1990), 451 (1986).
