Re: Request for W016020

Dear Ms. Camp-Lee:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 959852.

After reviewing your arguments, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold any such information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. In addition, upon review of your arguments and the information at issue, we conclude you must withhold Exhibit C pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.008(b) of the Family Code.¹

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
