

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 21, 2022

Mr. Matthew J. Engelbaum
Assistant City Attorney
City of El Paso
P.O. Box 1890
El Paso, Texas 79950-1890

OR2022-21421

Dear Mr. Engelbaum:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 960945 (Ref. No. 22-1050-11735).

The City of El Paso (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to an incident involving the requestor's client. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information includes a CR-3 accident report. Section 550.065 of the Transportation Code applies only to a written report of an accident required under section 550.061, 550.062, or 601.004. See Transp. Code § 550.065(a)(1). Chapter 550 requires the creation of a written report when the accident resulted in injury to or the death of a person or damage to the property of any person to the apparent extent of $1,000 or more. Id. §§ 550.061 (operator's accident report), .062 (officer's accident report). An accident report is privileged and for the confidential use of the Texas Department of Transportation or a local governmental agency of Texas that has use for the information for accident prevention purposes. Id. § 550.065(b). However, a governmental entity shall release an accident report in accordance with subsections (c) and (c-1). Id. § 550.065(c), (c-1). Section 550.065(c) provides a governmental entity shall release an accident report to a person or entity listed under this subsection. Id. § 550.065(c). In this instance, the requestor represents a person involved in the accident at issue. See id. § 550.065(c)(4)(b). Although the city asserts section 552.103 of the Government Code to withhold the information, a statutory right of access prevails over the Act's general exceptions to public disclosure. See, e.g., Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exception to disclosure under the Act). Because section 552.103 is a general exception under the Act, the requestor's statutory access under section 550.065(c) prevails and the city may not withhold the information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. Therefore, the city must release the submitted CR-3 accident report in its entirety to this requestor pursuant to section 550.065(c) of the Transportation Code.

The remaining information is subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022(a) provides, in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following categories of information are public information and not excepted from required disclosure unless made confidential under this chapter or other law:

(1) a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, for, or by a governmental body, except as provided by Section 552.108[.]

Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(1). The information subject to section 552.022(a)(1) must be released unless it is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code or is made confidential under the Act or other law. See id. § 552.022(a)(1). You seek to withhold this information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. However, section 552.103 is discretionary in nature and does not make information confidential under the Act. See Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W.3d 469, 475-76 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive Gov't Code § 552.103); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions). Therefore, none of the information subject to section 552.022(a)(1) may be withheld under section 552.103. However, as sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code can make information confidential under the Act, we will address the applicability of these sections to the information subject to section 552.022(a)(1).¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by section 773.091 of the Health and Safety Code, which provides, in part:

(b) Records of the identity, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by emergency medical services personnel or by a physician providing medical supervision that are created by the emergency medical services personnel or physician or maintained by an emergency medical services provider are confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(g) The privilege of confidentiality under this section does not extend to information regarding the presence, nature of injury or illness, age, sex, occupation, and city of residence of a patient who is receiving emergency medical services.

Health & Safety Code § 773.091(a)-(b), (g). Some of the remaining information consists of records made and maintained by EMS personnel. Upon review, we find section 773.091 is applicable to the information at issue. Thus, with the exception of the information subject to section 773.091(g) of the Government Code, which is not confidential and must be released, the city must withhold the indicated EMS record under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 773.091(b) of the Health and Safety Code.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The court of appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). We note the requestor has a right of access to information pertaining to her client that would otherwise be confidential under common-law privacy. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a) ("a person or person's authorized representative has a special right of access, beyond the right of the general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to a person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person's privacy interests"); ORD 481 at 4 (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning herself). Thus, the city must withhold all public citizens' dates of birth not belonging to the requestor's client under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130(a). We note section 552.130 protects privacy interests. Thus, the requestor has a right of access to her client's motor vehicle record information. See id. § 552.023(a); ORD No. 481 at 4. Accordingly, the city must withhold the driver's license, license plate number, vehicle identification number, and issuing state not pertaining to the requestor's client under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

² This ruling does not affect an individual's right of access to a patient's EMS records from the EMS provider. See Health & Safety Code §§ 773.092, .093; cf. Abbott v. Tex. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 391 S.W.3d 253 (Tex. App.—Austin 2012, no pet.) (Medical Practice Act does not provide patient general right of access to his or her medical records from governmental body responding to request for information under Public Information Act).

In summary, the city must release the submitted CR-3 accident report in its entirety to this requestor pursuant to section 550.065(c) of the Transportation Code. With the exception of the information subject to section 773.091(g) of the Government Code, which is not confidential and must be released, the city must withhold the indicated EMS record under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 773.091(b) of the Health and Safety Code. The city must withhold all public citizens' dates of birth not belonging to the requestor's client under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The city must withhold the driver's license, license plate number, vehicle identification number, and issuing state not pertaining to the requestor's client under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The city must release the remaining information.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
