Re: Two requests for information pertaining to two named individuals and a specified incident

Dear Ms. Zellers:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 962276 (ORR# W003467).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the responsive information may be withheld from the requestors pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the responsive information under section 552.108(a)(1).¹ However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

c: 2 Requestors
(w/o enclosures)

¹ As we are able to make this determination, we need not consider the applicability of section 1701.661(a) of the Occupations Code to the submitted video recordings. See Occ. Code § 1701.771(a), (e). In addition, we note information beyond the specific information requested is not responsive. This ruling does not address the public availability of any information that is not responsive, and the city is not required to release non-responsive information in response to the instant requests.
