Dear Mr. Overton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 964782 (ORR# 0953-05-2022).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 508.313(a) of the Government Code, which provides the following:

- (a) All information obtained and maintained, including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

- (1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;
- (2) a releasee; or
- (3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a). You state a portion of the submitted information, which you have marked, consists of records of a releasee that are subject to section 508.313 of the Government Code. You also state the requestor is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, there is no indication this information is made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code.

Section 552.134(a) of the Government Code relates to inmates of the department and provides the following:

Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Id. § 552.134(a). Upon review, we agree the remaining information constitutes information about an inmate for purposes of section 552.134. You state the information at issue does not contain basic information subject to section 552.029 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the department must withhold the remaining information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.²

In summary, the department must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the remaining information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
