OR2022-27010

Dear Ms. Tynan:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 970540 (OGC# 206577).

The University of Texas at Rio Grande Valley (the "university") received a request for the final report from a specified investigation involving the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 51.971 of the Education Code. Section 51.971 of the Education Code provides, in relevant part, the following:

(a) In this section:

(1) "Compliance program" means a process to assess and ensure compliance by the officers and employees of an institution of higher education with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and policies, including matters of:

(A) ethics and standards of conduct;

- (B) financial reporting;
- (C) internal accounting controls; or
- (D) auditing.

(2) “Institution of higher education” has the meaning assigned by Section 61.003.

...

(c) The following are confidential:

(1) information that directly or indirectly reveals the identity of an individual who made a report to the compliance program office of an institution of higher education, sought guidance from the office, or participated in an investigation conducted under the compliance program[.]

(d) Subsection (c) does not apply to information related to an individual who consents to disclosure of the information.

Educ. Code § 51.971(a), (c)(1), (d). You inform us the university is an institution of higher education for purposes of section 61.003 of the Education Code. See id. § 51.971(a)(2). You state the information at issue pertains to a completed investigation undertaken by the university’s Office of Human Resources and the Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost, and the allegations were found to be unsubstantiated. You state the investigation was conducted in response to allegations against a university employee and was initiated in order to assess and ensure compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and policies. Based on your representations, we find this information relates to investigations conducted under the university’s compliance program. See id. § 51.971(a)(1).

You seek to withhold the submitted information under section 51.971(c)(1) of the Education Code. The university states only a small subset of individuals was involved in the investigation. The university further states the requestor has knowledge of the identities of the involved individuals and the events at issue. You assert release of the submitted information would directly or indirectly identify the individuals who sought guidance from or participated in the compliance program investigations. We understand none of the remaining individuals at issue has consented to the release of their information. Based on these representations and our review, we agree release of the submitted information would directly or indirectly identify individuals as participants in the compliance program investigation. See id. § 51.971(c). Accordingly, the submitted information is confidential under section 51.971 of the Education Code and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Erin Groff
Assistant Attorney General
