Re: Request for records pertaining to a named individual; Ref. No. W454742-062422

Dear Mr. Kopp:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 970383.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim some of the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. In addition, we conclude you must withhold the information we indicated pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. Upon review of your arguments and the information at issue, we also conclude you may withhold the information we indicated under section 552.108(a)(2). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
