Ms. LaNetra S. Lary
Assistant County Attorney
Fort Bend County

Dear Ms. Lary:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 972646 (Reference Nos. 0809, 0906).

The Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received two requests for information pertaining to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code. Section 261.201 provides, in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k). The submitted information was used or developed in an investigation by the Child Protective Services Division of the Department of Family and Protective Services (“DFPS”) of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201), 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of section 261.201 of Family Code). Thus, the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201(a). We note the one of the requestors is a parent of the child victim listed in the submitted information, and the requestor is not alleged to have committed the alleged abuse or neglect. However, the sheriff’s office is not the investigating agency for the investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect in the information at issue. Thus, this requestor does not have a right of access to this information pursuant to section 261.201(k) of the Family Code. See id. § 261.201(k). Therefore, the sheriff’s office must withhold the submitted information from both requestors under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>
