Re: Requests for information pertaining the requestors' arrests on 4/23/022 and specified policies

Dear Mr. Kaminar:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 973650.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You state you will release the requested policies. You state the remainder of the requests are seeking information pertaining to specified arrests. This ruling does not address the public availability of any information that is not responsive to the requests and you are not required to release such information in response to these requests. You claim the responsive information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the responsive information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
