Re: Request for

Dear Ms. Ortiz:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 978199 (PPD Tracking# P023471-080522).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue.¹ Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You must release information relating to the blood or breath test results to this requestor pursuant to section 724.018 of the Transportation Code. You claim the remaining information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the remaining information, we conclude you may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, as you acknowledge, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open->

¹ We note the Plano Police Department (the “department”) received a previous request for the same information from this requestor. In response to the previous request, the department indicates it released basic information to the requestor on March 3, 2022, and withheld certain information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code, pursuant to the previous determination this office issued to the department in Open Records Letter No. 2016-08690 (2016). Subsequently, the requestor made a second request for the same information on August 5, 2022.
