

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

December 14, 2022

Ms. Debra A. Anderson
Public Information Coordinator
Hays County
111 East San Antonio Street, Suite 202
San Marcos, Texas 78666

OR2022-38925

Dear Ms. Anderson:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 990188 (Ref. No. R003351).

Hays County (the "county") received a request for information pertaining to a specified solicitation.¹ Although you take no position as to whether the submitted information is excepted under the Act, you state release of this information may implicate the proprietary interests of Air Performance Service of Central Texas, LLC; BCS Data Center Operations; and SI Mechanical, LLC ("SI"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified these interested third parties of the request for information and of the right to submit arguments to this office as to why the information at issue should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have received comments from SI.² We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

¹ We note the county sought and received clarification of the request for information. See Gov't Code § 552.222(b) (stating if information requested is unclear to governmental body or if large amount of information has been requested, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify or narrow request, but may not inquire into purpose for which information will be used); City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380 (Tex. 2010) (holding when governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification of unclear or overbroad request for public information, ten-business-day period to request attorney general opinion is measured from date request is clarified or narrowed).

² Although SI raises section 552.111 of the Government Code for some of the information at issue, we note section 552.111 protects the interests of governmental bodies and not third parties. See Gov't Code § 552.111.

Initially, we note an interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice to submit its reasons, if any, as to why info relating to that party should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this ruling, we have not received comments from any of the remaining third parties. Thus, we have no basis to conclude any of the remaining third parties have a protected proprietary interest in the submitted information. See, e.g., id. § 552.110 (requiring the provision of specific factual evidence demonstrating the applicability of the exception). Accordingly, the county may not withhold any portion of the submitted information on the basis of any proprietary interest any of the remaining third parties may have in the information.

Next, we understand SI seeks to withhold some of the submitted information because it was supplied with the expectation of confidentiality. However, we note information is not confidential under the Act simply because the party that submits the information anticipates or requests it be kept confidential. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 677 (Tex. 1976). In other words, a governmental body cannot overrule or repeal provisions of the Act by agreement or contract. See Attorney General Opinion JM-672 (1987); Open Records Decision Nos. 541 at 3 (1990) (“[T]he obligations of a governmental body under [the Act] cannot be compromised simply by its decision to enter into a contract.”), 203 at 1 (1978) (mere expectation of confidentiality by person supplying information did not satisfy requirements of statutory predecessor to section 552.110). Consequently, unless the information falls within an exception to disclosure, the county must release it, notwithstanding any expectations or agreement specifying otherwise.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 252.049 of the Local Government Code. Section 252.049 provides:

- (a) Trade secrets and confidential information in competitive sealed bids are not open for public inspection.
- (b) If provided in a request for proposals, proposals shall be opened in a manner that avoids disclosure of the contents to competing offerors and keeps the proposals secret during negotiations. All proposals are open for public inspection after the contract is awarded, but trade secrets and confidential information in the proposals are not open for public inspection.

Local Gov't Code § 252.049. This provision merely duplicates the protection section 552.110 of the Government Code provides to trade secret and commercial or financial information. Therefore, we will address SI's arguments with respect to section 252.049 of the Local Government Code under sections 552.110 and 552.1101 of the Government Code.

Section 552.1101 of the Government Code provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Section 552.0222, information submitted to a governmental body by a vendor, contractor, potential vendor, or potential contractor in response to a request for a bid, proposal, or qualification is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if the vendor, contractor, potential vendor, or potential contract that the information relates to demonstrates based on specific factual evidence that disclosure of the information would:

(1) reveal an individual approach to:

(A) work;

(B) organization structure;

(C) staffing;

(D) internal operations;

(E) processes; or

(F) discounts, pricing methodology, pricing per kilowatt hour, cost data, or other pricing information that will be used in future solicitation or bid documents, and

(2) give advantage to a competitor.

Gov't Code § 552.1101(a). Additionally, we note section 552.0222(b) lists certain types of information to which section 552.1101(a) does not apply. See id. § 552.0222(b). SI asserts disclosure of the information at issue would reveal an individual approach to its internal processes, discounts, or pricing methodology and give advantage to a competitor. Upon review, we find SI has demonstrated the applicability of section 552.1101(a) to some of the information at issue. Accordingly, the county must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1101(a) of the Government Code.³ However, we find some of the remaining information at issue is subject to section 552.0222(b) and may not be withheld on the basis of section 552.1101. Additionally, we find SI has failed to demonstrate the applicability of section 552.1101 to any portion of the remaining information. Therefore, the county may not withhold any of the remaining information at issue under section 552.1101(a) of the Government Code.

Section 552.110(b) of the Government Code states “information is [excepted from required disclosure] if it is demonstrated based on specific factual evidence that the information is a trade secret.” See id. § 552.110(b). Section 552.110(a) defines a trade secret as all forms and types of information if:

³ As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address SI's remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

(1) the owner of the trade secret has taken reasonable measures under the circumstances to keep the information secret; and

(2) the information derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable through proper means by, another person who can obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of the information.

Id. § 552.110(a). SI argues some of its remaining information consists of trade secrets subject to section 552.110(b). Upon review, however, we find SI has failed to provide specific factual evidence demonstrating any portion of its remaining information at issue is a trade secret. Therefore, the county may not withhold any of the remaining information at issue under section 552.110(b) of the Government Code.

Section 552.136 of the Government Code provides, “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.” Id. § 552.136(b); see id. § 552.136(a) (defining “access device”). Accordingly, the county must withhold the routing and bank account numbers we marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

You state some of the remaining information may be protected by copyright. A custodian of public records must comply with the copyright law and is not required to furnish copies of records that are copyrighted. Open Records Decision No. 180 at 3 (1977). A governmental body must allow inspection of copyrighted materials unless an exception applies to the information. Id.; see Open Records Decision No. 109 (1975). If a member of the public wishes to make copies of copyrighted materials, the person must do so unassisted by the governmental body. In making copies, the member of the public assumes the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit.

In summary, the county must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1101(a) of the Government Code. The county must withhold the routing and bank account numbers we marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code. The county must release the remaining information; however, any information subject to copyright may only be released in accordance with copyright law.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
